Appomattox County Library

Friends of the Library met there Monday evening September 19. Ron Spiggle of the Advisory Board gave a brief report of a recent meeting with the school board. Following that a list of special needs of the library was drawn up and at a future meeting priorities will be determined. An open house at the library during Railroad Days was discussed because the library houses two permanent historical displays - Indian Artifacts and Joel Sweeney Banjo.

A new display of approximately 50 different kinds of sea shells and other items from the sea has been arranged by Betty Lee and Minerva Kepler and is well worth taking a few minutes to drop by to look it over.

Margaret Glover, librarian, reported that the library is very grateful for a donation to purchase books recently received from the Ruritan Club of Oakville.

Members attending were Minerva Kepler, Ruby Williamson, Ronnie Spiggle, Francis Tyler, Virginia Tyler, Margaret Glover, Virginia Beard, Lucille Ferrell, Peggy Marshall, Dot Coleman, and Mary Jane Hoffman.

Attention Girl Scouts

On Sept. 26 the National Executive, a senior Girl Scout, a number of GSUSA adults serving as volunteers at the world level will be in London attending the service of thanksgiving in memory of Lady Baden-Powell. It is the wish of the World Chief Guide that on this day everybody belonging to the Girl Scout movement who has a uniform would please wear it on this day.

Self-expression

Knowing how to share your ideas, your thoughts, the individual traits that make you unique . . . knowing how to communicate your feelings. Every child needs to learn the secret—and the satisfaction—of self-expression . . . and learning to play the piano helps him do it. Playing the piano teaches a child self-expression, appreciation, involvement, discipline. Your child will get more out of a Baldwin than just music.

What better way for those of us in Girl Scouting to join with representives of the World Association of Girl Guides and Girl Scouts in thought and prayer, than to show visibly our devotion to Lady Baden-Powell by proudly wearing our uniforms on Sept. 26.
